

INCLUDES TEMPLE BAR AND GREATER DUBLIN

POKER | ROULETTE | BLACKJACK | BRAG PUNTO BANCO | PRIVATE EVENTS

Mulligan # Haines

FOOD SERVED DAILY FROM 12PM

LIVE MUSIC & ENTERTAINMENT FROM THURS - SUN TIL' LATE

JUNCH & DINNER SPECIALS AVAILABLE

FOR BOOKINGS AND RESERVATIONS CONTACT OI 8824355 BOOKINGS@MULLIGANANDHAINES.IE

32 DAME STREET

O f @MULLIGANANDHAINES 9 @MULLANDHAINES

Dublin's Nightlife Scene

From music and dance in a traditional Irish pub to DJs mixing the latest chart sounds in a club, Dublin's nightlife is renowned throughout the world. Add to that an evening Ghost Bus or Grave Digger tour, a visit to Fitzwilliam Casino and Card Club or the iconic Riverdance or Murray's Traditional Irish show, and you've got yourself one night-time trip to remember.

Take a journey through our listings and find some of Dublin's fabulous Victorian Irish hostelries, quirky little pubs, celeb-strewn bars and gorgeous bar restaurants. Have a great night. Sláinte!

Bars / Clubs

F5, B8 6 BAD BOBS 35-37 East Essex Street, Temple Bar, D2

t. +353 (0)1 677 8860, www.badbobs.ie Find us on Tripadvisor, Yelp, 🌃, 🖻 "Bad Bobs Temple Bar" Drink: Whether you're out for a cocktail, getting crafty with beers or want to bomb with friends. We've got it all! Food: Gastro pub food h recommended on trip advisor. Try the specials and homemade desserts. As all is freshly prepared, service takes a little longer han fast food but it's worth it!

Price: We're regular city centre price unusual for Temple Bar. Staff: Friendly, fun, approachable and reasonably good looking!

Music: Live, Contemporary music played by some of Dublin's most talented nusicians, acoustically amplified covers & originals that won't disappoint. DJ's & xophonist In the club on weekends playing an eclectic mix from old to new. aranteed to have you dancing all night long. Late bar 7 nights a week. 2 for 10 cocktails. Live Music, DJ and Sax.

F7 29 JIMMY RABBITTE'S 87 Lower Camden Streen, D2

t. +353 (0)1 478 0808, www.jimmy-rabbittes.business.site, 🌃 TJimmv Rabbitte's is Dublin's newest & coolést bar. Named after the central character in Roddy Dovle's book The Commitments, this brand new premises is located in the bohemian guarter of Camden Street, just a stone's throw from Temple Bar 8 Grafton Street. Boasting a stylish & contemporary interior offering an exciting drinks menu, including a delicious range of cocktails and a wide and if our extensive selection of drinks isn't enough to persuade you through the door the publitself is an experience not to be missed. It's a quirky eclectic mix of ontemporary & traditional styles. We hope to see you there soon Open:Sun-Wed 12pm-12am, Thurs-Sat 12pm-3am

Speakeasy

G6 THE BLIND PIG SPEAKEASY 18 Suffolk Street, D2 t. +353 (0)1 565 4700, www.theblindpig.ie, 🚺 ublin's city centre, there is n underground cocktail bar artistry of its cocktails that truly voke the mood of a 1920s peakeasy — The Blind Pig he Blind Pig will tantalize the aste buds of cocktail lover xperience the forgotten thril of secret passwords, false storefronts and just a touch of lawlessness. You have to ep it a secret. So shush! To make a reservation, for drinks, cocktails or dinner or to retly tucked away ir ee the Blind Pig at a particular time email reservations@theblindpig.ie or by using he reservation tab at www.theblindpig.ie You will then receive instructions on our ocation which is less than a five minute walk from Trinity College in the city centre near Grafton Street. For last-minute bookings or if you wish to pop in for a quick drink ist call on + 353 (0) 85 874 7901. Open: Daily from 6pm and late on Fridays & Saturdays with live music!

IOKE SMITHFIELD, DUBLIN 72-74 Queen Street Smithfield, D7

01 532 2699 contact@tokendublin.ie www.tokendublin.ie

Winner of FOOD AWARDS the Dublin Restaurant of the Year 2017 REGIONAL WINNER

IT'S DANGEROUS TO GO ALL

......

33 TOKEN 2-74 Queen Street, Smithfield, D7

t. +353 (0)1 532 2699, www.tokendublin.ie, 🚮 🔄 Winner of the 'Restaurant of the Year' award in 2017, Token is more of a hef-driven hang out spot than your traditional arcade bar. Scattered throughout the multiple zones, there are over 36 original classic arcade & pinball machines with Donkey Kong, Addams Family Pinball, Mario Kart, Time Crisis, Pac Man, Street Fighter 2, and Dance Dance Revolution being some of the fan favourites. If games aren't really your thing, there are 2 fully stocked bars with over 60 different beers and a constantly evolving gourmet fast food the more unique nights out in the city! Walk ins are welcome, but for groups larger than 4 advise booking ahead at www. tokendublin.ie is advisable. Open: Sun-Mon 12pm-11pm, Open: Sun-Mon 12pm-11pm,

Fri & Sat 12pm-12am

Sports Bar

G3 🚯 THE LIVING ROOM Cathal Brugha Street, D1

t. +353 (01) 872 7169, www.thelivingroom.ie, info@thelivingroom.ie, 🚺/The Living Room, 📴@thelivingroomd1

he Living Room is Dublin's best sports bar - It's official! roud Winner of the Sky Bar Of The Year Award 2016 and National Hospitality ward 2017 for Best Sports Bar. The Living Room is an experience not to be nissed! With over 50 large screens showing live sports from all over the world. here's something for everyone. Our terrace & beer garden features Ireland's argest outdoor screen, the ideal venue for those big sporting occasions. Enjoy a delicious cocktail from our extensive cocktail menu or sample one of the and live music. Serving delicious sweet ar many delights from our food menu: all our dishes are prepared fresh daily in our award winning kitche Ve feature live music & n our late bar everv week ou can dance the night awa The Living Room is Dublii remier party venue!

Open: Sun-Wed 10am-12am, Thur-Sat 10am-3am

H6 2 KENNEDY'S 30-32 Westland Row, D2

t. + 353 (0)1 679 9077, www.kennedyspub.ie, 🛽 🚺 📴 unded in 1850 as a small grocer's shop, Mrs Kennedy quickly realised that nstalling a tap selling pints o'porter could earn an extra couple of well-needed chillings come rent-day. While the choice has somewhat improved to include some world renowned IPA's, stouts and ales; the old-worldly charm still remains. heir famous ex-employee, Oscar Wilde, graces the walls where he once stacked shelves. Located beside the three O'Callaghan hotels, there is always a serious

G3 🔮 MURRAY'S 33-34 O'Connell Street Upper, D1, t. +353 (0)1 878 7505, ww.murraysbarandgrill.ie, info@murraysbarandgrill.ie, ∐≁Murrav's Bar O'Connell Street, ©@murravsofdublin n 1908 Grandma Murray opened Murray's Pub at 33 Upper O'Connell Street (then known as Sackville Street) in the heart of the city. Murray's has been serving the people of Dublin ever since & Grandma Murray's descendants still run the pub to this day! With show 7 nights a week, it's no wonder Murray's Bar & Grill has become a firm favourite of locals & visitors alike. Murray's sports bar upstairs shows all major sporting events on several large screens...or check out our comfortable terrace area, complete with real fire and Ireland's largest outdoor screen. The latest addition to the Murray's experience is our New York-style Basement Bar, Dublin's most uxurious whiskey bar. Murray's is the ideal venue for great food and great craic....& a warm welcome every time Open: 8:30am

G6 ⁵ THE DUKE BAR 8-9 Duke Street, D2

and the same of the

E6 🕸 THE JUG

40 Francis Street D8

F5 🕸 J.T. PIM'S

– 12:30am, Sunday 12:30pm – 11:00pm.

tuated in the heart of Dublin's Antique Quarter

ar in the midst of The Liberties, Dublin's oldest listrict and now an up and coming visitor destination. Recently renovated, this light and airy bar is the perfect spot for a decently priced

arge screens show all major sporting actior mall groups seeking a bit of space to part[,] pint and craic amongst the local clientele

and they also host live music nights.

on Francis St, The Jug is atmospheric modern he sights. You could also take in the famous Dublin Literary Pub Crawl which starts om here or enjoy one of their Comedy Nights. Check out their social media for details. Serving hearty Traditional Irish food 7 days a week with a great selection o Craft beers and whiskeys, it's a great place to sample authentic Irish fare!! Open Mon- Thurs 10:30am – 11:30pm, Fri & Sat 10:30am – 12:30am, Sun 12:30pm – 11pm.

J4 10 THE FERRYMAN TOWNHOUSE & BAR 35 Sir John Rogerson Quay, D2

nown for the quality and 🛛 t. +353 (0)1 671 7053, www.theferrymantownhouse.ie, 🚮 📴 e Ferryman offers a unique taste of Dublin fe! Comprised of 2 restored listed Georgian uildings. The Ferryman Townhouse verlooks the River Liffey

e are a traditional old style Dublin pub nat has a wonderful atmosphere and has tained its old world charms. Come and y has to offer and join in with the locals for raditional Irish Welcome. The Ferryman also offers traditional Carvery Lunch served Monday – Friday from 12:00pm – 2:30pm. We also offer great value accommodation, all en-suite. Function

10

1 Johnson Place, D2 beers and treat yourself to the their are both close by

The Duke, it's your local in the city entre. The Duke has been providing iquid refreshment and sustenance o the people of Dublin since 822. Ideally situated beside the Grafton street shopping area, tourist attractions like The Book of Kells, the National Museum and Gallery and The rish Whiskey Museum, The Duke is a great place to unwind after taking in 129-131 Capel Street, D1 t. +353 (0)1 874 6844 www.slattervs.ba oy one of the best pints of Guinness the Room available. Open Mon – Thurs 12:00pm – 11:30pm, Fri & Sat 12:00pm view. Open: 7am daily.

H5 PETER'S PUB

G4 ⁴⁹THE CONFESSION BOX 88 Marlborough Street, D1, t. +353 (0)1 828 0028.

Late Night Gastro Bar 32 Dame St D2. t. +353 (0) 1 882 4355, www.mulliganandhaines.ie, devittspub.ie 🛐, 📴 Devitt's is a long-established traditional Irish pub lating from 1871 and is an easy 10 minute walk from Dublin city centre. Devitt's enjoys a clientele of all ages, rom local regulars to folk from all corners of the globe. They serve a wide range of drinks, including arguably the best pint of Guinness in Dublin, along with other ocal beers plus a typically fully-stocked bar. Gin and hiskey lovers can rejoice as there is an extensive gin nenu, including some world-class Irish gins such as Hendrick's and Gunpowder, and a huge selection of Irish whiskies including Jameson, Redbreast, Powers, Paddy, Method & Madness, Midleton, Green Spot and Yellow Spot. Don't miss out on their great selection of homemade traditional Irish food with their famous toasties available all day, every day. For an authentic

Distante Hones

Nulligan & Haines is the perfect place for poth a hearty lunch and an after-work tipple.

o make a reservation contact bookings@

nulliganandhaines.ie or call 01 882 4355.

Keep up to date on all their events by ollowing them on social media. Open:

Mon- Thurs & Sun 12pm -12am Fri-Sat

12pm-2am

F7/8 🕗 DEVITTS

eir €6.50 toastie and pint offer. There is also private room off the main bar fo

Open Mon-Thurs 3pm-11:30pm, Fri-Sat 12pm-12:30am, Sun 12:30pm-11pm

South Great George's St, D2 . +353 (0)1 672 4645 , www.jtpims.ie, 🚹/JT Pims, 📴/@JTPims . Pim's is a modern twist on a clas Dublin bar serving great beers, wir and cocktails. This stylish new pre ith two bars over two floors is at tl eart of Dublin's Creative Quarter and ne Dame District. J.T. Pim's has earne reputation amongst locals as a co ew bar, with the relaxed friendline of an old style Dublin pub. rving great bar food everyday

F5, C8 3 MULLIGAN & HAINES

Mulligan & Haines is the newest addition t

the ever-expanding Dublin bar scene. Taking residence in Dame Street, this ultra cool spot

is steeped in history as it was once the Dublir

Bread Company and the very site where a famous exchange in Ulysses took place between antagonist Buck Mulligan and his companion, Haines. Uniting the contemporary with the traditional, Mulligan & Haines has bee completely refurbished across all three floors

with interiors that set the scene for meeting

savoury baked delights and guality cocktail friends or memorial soirees with regular [ buzz at lunchtimes and after-work but you can always find somewhere to plonk yourself down and sip on a nice cold pint or one of their renowned Irish

Coffees. Be warned, with food served until 10pm each night, it is hard to resist a bowl of their fabulous chicken wings or enormous fish & chips once you see hem served at the table beside you. Open: Mon-Thurs 10am-11:30pm, Fri-Sat 10am-late, Sun 12pm-11pm.

15 South William St. D2

G5 (B) DOYLES

9 College Street, D2, t. +353 (0)1 671 0616, www.doylesintown.com, 🚹 award winning food, a wide range of craft beers & our traditional Irish music & dancing

www.dametavern.com 🛐 📴 🚺

very popular with locals customers

Drink where the locals drink!

F6 🛈 GROGAN'S CASTLE LOUNGE

stablished in 1899, Grogan's is a raditional Dublin pub that has been and still is a haunt of Ireland's artistic avant-garde including literary greats such s Patrick Kavanagh, Flann Ö'Brien, J.P. Donleavy and Liam O'Flaherty, Traditional o the core, there are no TV screens or background music, just amiable, velcoming bar staff with plenty of stories o tell. None more so than the joint proprietor Tommy Smith who has been watching the scene for over 40 years. The interior has a 1950s feel and continuing its association with the arts, the walls are festooned with paintings by local artists which are for sale on a non- commission basis. Outdoor seating spills onto Castle Market making it a busy hub on the street. The ambiance attracts an eclectic mix of students, business suits, old fashioned drinkers and Dublin's glamorous youth, who meet to talk and mingle or just have a few quite drinks in peace. Open: Mon- Thurs 10:30am-11:30pm, Fri-Sat 10:30-12:30am, Sun 12:30-enowned as one of the top late bars in Dublin, Doyles is located near Trinity College. The upstairs lounge i a buzz every weekend with top Djs playing soul, alternative, electro, house etc. The main bar has a more relaxed atmosphere until the night sets in. Rugby and football games shown on

GUINNESS

F5 🞱 THE DAME TAVERN BAR 18 Dame Court. D2, t. +353 (0)87 787 3064

DAME TAVERN Family run pub in centre of city for 30+ years Renowned for its excellent Guinness, making it

Excellent atmosphere with friendly staff and Live music and Irish music sessions daily

Open: Mon - Thu 10:30am-11:30pm, Fri - Sat 10:30am

E/F4 🕸 SLATTERY'S BAR

World Famous Slattery's Bar was established in 1870 and has many origina /ictorian features. It has hosted some of the greats of Irish music; U.2 and Thin Lizz had gigs here while Van Morrison, Christy Moore and The Chieftans were regulars. Th tradition continues today with live music every weekend. Slattery's is open from 7am daily and serves the best Irish breakfast in Dublin, as ecommended by Anthony Bourdain. Food is erved until late. Live sports are shown on big screens and if its Guinness you are after, you won't find a better pint."You can smell St James gate from the front door"! During the Easter Rising, Slattery's provided shelter and ustenance to rebels during the worst of the fighting at the nearby GPO. Their excellent 1916 commemorative wall is not to be missed. As well as photographs they have interesting authentic uniforms, medals, documents and weaponry on

t. +353 (0)1 679 3347, www.peterspub.ie The best drinks in good company" is the motto of this traditional family-run Dublin pub, and they're not wrong! A risit here is like stepping into Peter's iendly front room, rather than an personal pub. Expect a warm. velcoming atmosphere in an unstuffy setting with cosy banguette and bar Board games are available to help you wind away the afternoon and don't miss out seating. Sample the large selection of /s and Irish Cra celebrated toasties or traditional cheese boards or open prawn sandwiches on country's leading politicians, spo brown Irish soda bread. The House Speciality Irish Coffee is a perfect pre and and media presonalities with ba post theatre or shopping treat - the Gaiety Theatre and bustling Grafton Street and function rooms over three level

Open Mon-Thu 11am - 11:30pm, Fri & Sat 11am - 12:30am, Sun 1pm - 11pm.

Vinners of Best Pint Dublin 2014,2015, Best Pub in Dublin 2016, Best Bar 2017, and our Monica won Best Bar Person 2017 uring the 1919-21 War of Independence rebe lunteers under Michael Collins sought refuge nispublichouse.'The Maid of Erin', as it was ther lled, was used by sympathetic clergy so that the bels might receive the sacraments and make thei nfession in secret rooms. The small size of the om and its proximity to the Pro-Cathedral led to becoming known locally as 'The Confession Box ne of the smallest bars in Dublin, The Confession Box is situated in the heart of Dublin in the shadow of the Pro-Cathedral and near the Spire and Luas he authentic cosy Dublin pub is frequented by ocal Dublin regulars and many repeat visitors from afar. Feel at home as you relax or join in the banter nd craic. This historic pub was recently renovated and is run by the friendliest of Dublin bar staff who promise an enjoyable and comfortable visit. With coverage of major TV sport events and great weekend live music all tastes are catered for Open Mon-Thu 10.30am-11.30pm, Fri & Sat until 12.30am, Sun 12.30pm-11pm.

78 Lower Camden St. D2 t. +353 (0) 1 475 3414 www.devittspub.ie info@

Casino

78 THE FITZWILLIAM CASINO & CARD CLUB Clifton Hall, Lower Fitzwilliam Street, D2 t. +353 (0)1 611 4677

www.fitzwilliamcardclub.com

he Fitzwilliam Casino and Card Club is Ireland's Favourite and Busiest Casino The club is open from 6pm – 6am and offers a wide range of Live Casino Games including Roulette, Blackjack, Punto Banco, and Brag/ 3 Card Poker n our Large Open Plan Gaming Floor.

enowned for our Friendly and Welcoming Atmosphere "The Fitz" is the Home of Live Poker in Ireland with Texas Holdem Poker Tournaments Every light from 8pm. The Best Cash Game Action in Ireland can be found here laily from 6.30pm with limits to suit all budgets.

ix Big Screens show you all the Best Live and Pay per View sporting events We have a Full Menu Available until 4.30am with Free Wi-Fi and Private vent facilities.

tzwilliamcardclul om. Open 7 Days a Week with Regular Promotions where you can wir nything from a Gold Bar to a Brand New IPhone!

Open 7 Days a Week 6pm-6am f/thefitzcasino

G5 22 ITAS

F6 1 THE SWAN BAR

Corner of Aungier/York Street, D2

t. + 353 (0)1 475 2722, www.theswanbar.com, 🚮

t. +353 (0)1 666 9354, info@itas.ie, www.itas.ie he Irish Tourist Assistance Service, ITAS, provides immediate support and assistance seven days a week to international visitors to the country who become victims of crime. If you are visiting reland and experience crime, contact ITAS for help. 'Safety ips for Tourists' guides are available in Tourist Offices.

Dublin's Victorian Pubs

Dublin's many pubs vary in character and clientele. If it is atmosphere and nostalgia for Dublin's past that beckons, there are an exclusive few that have survived revolution and Dublín's most famous pubs. Characterize urf fires still welcome the weary drinker in many, and some still have the serving hatches from which women were served in a time when bars were essentially male bastions. As favoured meeting places of many of Ireland's famous writers, revolutionaries, reconstruction, and remain a window into bygo

edate the Victorian era, it was the excesses vood panelling, elaborate carvings and unique or features in glass, brass and more, each pub has its

amongst Dublin pubs, The Swan

s an authentic Victorian pub that was once a medieval inn. There has been a continuous licence on this site since 1661 when Sir Francis

Aungier developed what was then

Dublin's widest street. The interior dates from 1897 and is one of the w remaining intact Victorian bars

key role in the evolution of the occupied by the Irish volunteers in the city. The pub has played h nation as the premises was ctorian Design Movement that have left their mar

days. Although many of Dublin's oldest waterir ome of philosophers, actors, and musicians, each establishment has a story to tell.

This icon of Irish licensed heritage has dispensed sustenance, shelter and social culture to the citizenry of Dublin for at least six centuries. Totally unique in 1916 and again by the anti-treaty forces in 1922. The pockmarks of artillery fire are still clearly visible on the exterior of the building. The pub was bought in 1937 by Cavan man John Lynch; his son Sean attained sporting fame playing rugby for history that resonates with the city's own. The snug is a common feature, an area withi

Cocktail Lounge/ Asian Dining

F4 🕑 KOH

6-7 Jervis Street, Millennium Walkway, D1 t. +353(0)1 814 6777, enquiries@koh.ie, www.koh.ie 1/KOHrestaurant, 📴 @KohRestaurant

Bar situated close to many Dublin City centre landmarks and tourist attractions. A warm Irish welcome awaits, in a discreet city centre location, on the pedestrianised Millennium Walkway. It is the perfect Bar o enjoy Award Winning Cocktails, Irish Traft Beers and has a renowned collection of Whiskeys – both Irish and International lassics. The Cocktail Bartenders are eager to chat to their guests and will expertly juide you through their range as you sit at the impressively long bar. Let them ake you through the world of perfect drinks or join them to create the Classic of omorrow, on the spot. Our kitchen is open until late every night, serving delicious Thai snacks in our opulent and cosy Lounge. Daily 12 noon - late.

liscounts available online.

E5 🕄 SIN-É LIVE MUSIC VENUE, CLUB & BAR 14/15 Upper Ormond Quay, D7 t +353 (0) 1 555 40 37, www.sin-e.ie Located in the heart of Dublin cit has become a staple of the city's nigh offering a huge eclectic range of music and Di's seven nights a week. Situated on the North Quays overlookir the Liffey, the venue boasts 2 floors an a heated patio and is just a three minut

> Discover Dublin's

H4/5 WMULLIGAN'S 8 Poolbeg St, D2

10,00

igan's is more than a Dublin pub; it is an Irish ultural phenomenon. A book has even been itten about it! It has a unique and colourful story, spanning over two hundred years. It is renowned for the quality of its Guinness that the pub where privacy can be assured.

s known as "the home of the pint". Illigan's has hosted the famous Judy Garland, amus Heaney, Con Houlihan, James Joyce and hn F. Kennedy to name but a few. Quirkiness ervades its atmosphere. The ashes of a US ourist are interred in its clock and barmen have en ghosts!

This fascinating pub encapsulates ar atmosphere and essence loved by both natives and tourists alike. Customers will regale you with lore and lies of the days of yore when doughty dockers rubbed shoulders with celebrities from the Theatre Royal across the street, newsmen from de Valera's Irish Press Group next door and students from neighboring rinity College

Open: Mon-Thurs 10.30am-11.30pm. Fri- Sat 10.30am-12.30pm Sun 12.30-11pm

H5 O'NEILL'S VICTORIAN PUB AND TOWNHOUSE 36-37 Pearse St. D2 t. +353 (0) 1 671 4074, www.oneillsdublin.com

Dating from 1885, this fabulous Pub and Townhouse offers a taste of Old Dublin, Lovingly maintained by the 'Neill family for generations and ozing period grace and charm, it offers a cozy and cheerful ambience. Steeped in history, it has been mentioned in Jovce's Ulvsees and was used by Aichael Collins as a safe house during he War of Independence. Opposite Trinity College and a few inutes' walk from Grafton St, it is renowned for great pints and quality food served till late. Try their own craft ale 'O'Neill's Red' or choose from over 50 varieties of Irish Whiskey which can be sampled in organized tastings. Why not try pulling your own pint of Guinness! A charming place to stay. The Townhouse is centrally located and offers 8 beautifully appointed rooms with mod cons. Lunch served 12- 2.15pm. Dinner 5-9pm

DUWE'S

-00-

G5 3 BOWE'S

31 Fleet St. D2 t. +353 (0)1 671 4038 www.bowespub.com, Bowe's oozes old world charm and is a haven from the crowded stree and bars of nearby Temple Bar. It has reputation for fantastic pints as well as vhiskey tasting, with stock of over 27 vhiskeys from around the world. The also have a good selection of rotatin craft beers on tap and in bottle Bowes is deceivingly compact from the outside, but surprisingly roomy once you step inside the bar. You mmediately you get a sense of stepping into a place removed from time. This is the place to go if you're meeting with friends or if you just want to get in out of the world for a little while and enjoy a pint and read a newspape

Open: Mon-Thurs 4pm - 11:30pm, Fri 4pm - 12:30am, Sat 11:30am - 12:30am, Sun 3pm-11pm. Early sun opening for major sporting fixtures.

G6 ⁽¹⁾ MCDAIDS 3 Harry Street, D2 t. +353 (0)1 679 4395 🚺/McDaids Dublin

Established in 1779. McDaids is situated off fashionable Grafton Street near Dublin city centre. One of the true literary pubs, i was frequented by many of the greats of Irish literature, including Patrick Kavanagh and Brendan Behan. Mcdaids retains its' tradition o hospitality ad is popular with locals and tourists alike. Dating back to the 🙉 it still retains many features from its' time as a church. These days it serves an excellent selection of craft beers in addition to pints of Ireland's best. When busy, head up the old steep stairs to the top bar if you fancy a quiet pint. On busy sporting occations. TV screens add to the atmosphere but music free, it remains a place for conversation and is the perfect place for those wishing to soak up Dublin's past and present. Open: Mod-Thurs 10:30am-11:30pm, Fri-Sat 10:30am-12:30am, Sun 12:30-11pm.

show 7 nights a week. Admission FREE rofessional Irish dancers perform a exhilarating toe-tapping display that wil take your breath away! Enjoy an awar winning meal while you watch the sho or sample our wide range of Irish whisk & craft beers. Audience members are encouraged to join the dancers on stage for a demonstration.... some have even managed to keep up! It's always great craic

t. +353 (0)1 456 9569,

Leinster, Ireland and The British and Irish Lions. He has the distinction of playing in all four tests in the only Lions team ever to beat the New Zealand All Blacks in the 1971 test series. The pub has a lot of Sean's rugby memorabilia on display. Call in and experience The Swan which is unique among Dublin's pub scene. Open Mon -Thurs and Sun 11am- 11pm. Fri & Sat 11am - 0.30am. H7 ⁽¹⁾ DOHENY & NESBITT 5 Baggot St. Lower

Open: Mon 10am-11:30pm, Tue 10am-Midnight, Wed & Thur 10am-12:30am,

G6 7 NEARY'S Chatham Street, D2

t. +353 (0)1 677 8596, nearysbardublin@gmail.com, www.nearys.ie

Neary's is located on Chatham Street in the centre o Dublin, off Grafton St, Dublin's premier retail area. Neary's can be traced back to 1887 when Thomas Neary was the proprietor and the name has stayed with the bar ever since. The bar has retained it's original Victorian character and features and is an authentic establishment which is a UNESCO listed City of Literature Bar.

During the day Neary's serves freshly prepared food o andwiches, soup and salads, in a friendly and relaxed nvironment. In the evening Neary's comes alive with the sound of conversation, with no televisions, conversation has top billing as customers relax and savour its famous pints of Guinness.

Opening Hours Monday – Thursday 10:30am l 1:30pm, Friday & Saturday 10:30am – 12:30am, Sunday 12:30pm – 11:00pm.

t. +353 (0)1 676 2945, www.dohenyandnesbitts.ie, 🌃 & Nesbitts is a haunt for many of Why not sample the finest in I food and drink? Come and enjoy t craic and banter in Doheny & Nesbit a must for any trip to Dublin Food served all day: breakfast, lun

©patrickdonald.com Fri & Sat 10am-2am, Sun 12pm-11pm

DOHENY & RESBITT and Monday from 8pm.

t. +353 (0)1 408 4800, www.guinness-storehouse.com. st 5 minutes walk from the city centre, this fermentation site has been ome to the Guinness Company since 1759, when Arthur Guinness igned the now-famous 9,000 year lease on the brewery. Now Ireland's o.1 Visitor Attraction, visitors are taken on a magical journey into the orld-famous Guinness brand. Enjoy the multisensory experience in e Tasting Rooms and explore the long tradition of award winning inness advertising. Learn how to pour the perfect pint in the Guinness Academy or learn how to taste the four most popular Guinness variants ir our exclusive Connoisseur Bar. Savour elicious Guinness inspired dishes in he restaurants and cafes and finish your tour with the spectacular panoramic views of Dublin from Gravity Bar over complimentary pint of Guinnes The Guinness Storehouse is a 15min walk from the city centre. Open daily 9:30am-7pm (last admission 5pm). July and August from 9:00am 8:00pm (last admission 6pm). Adult €25.00, 18+ with student D/Senior citizen €20.00, student -18 €16.00, group 15+ €22.00,

Live Music

walk from the capitals busy Dame St. Known also for their huge range of craft ales, whiskeys, gins and top shelf liquors, and fresh cocktails, Sin É is very beating heart of Dublin city. Open Sun/Wed 4pm-12.30am, Thur/Sat 3pm-3am.

SILIP

Tours

G3 🕹 GHOSTBUS TOUR

Step inside the world's first and Original ostbus and be transported into a world f ghostly happenings, dark humour and ifying tales. Visit the haunted museu and play cards with the devil himself, the take your place in the Victorian theatre abov and get set for a thrilling ride. Your si storyteller and guide will bring you t the scenes of the most despicable acts

Dublin's history. Hear the grisly tales of Dr. Clossey, learn of the instruments of prture once used on unfortunate Dubliners, visit the crypt at Dublin Castle, and take a crash course in bodysnatching at a hidden Dublin cemetery. The Ghostbus Tour promises to be a journey of terror and fun you'll never forget. Tours depart nightly except Sunday from Dublin Bus Head Office, 59 Upper O' Connell St. Tickets are €28 with a 15% discount if you buy online at ghostbus.ie. Phone 01 8444265

G5 9 GRAVE DIGGER TOUR

Ve will transport you back some 600 years ago to when the old Augustinian Priory and of course the plague house vere there. Listen to his tales of a plaqueravaged Dublin.

Hear an account of plague victims trying o soothe their wounds in the waters of the city's drinking supplies.

Learn about the mayors schemes to try and keep the disease at bay. Discover the fates of all those poor souls who found themselves infected with the diseas Many believed that the plague was the end of days, but the history of Dublin and its horrors continued. The tour departs outside Extreme Ireland College Green Tourist office at 7.45pm. See map for location.

Shows

G6 15 RIVERDANCE AT THE GAIETY THEATRE

Gaiety Theatre, South King St, D2

www.riverdance.com, www.ticketmaster.ie/Riverdance

A visit to Dublin is not complete without experiencing the energy e sensuality and the spectacle of erdance at the beautiful Gaiety heatre. Featuring the combined alent of the Riverdance Lead Dancers and Irish Dance Troupe, he live Riverdance Band and ngers and international artists, the show entertains audiences of all ages and cultures. First performed at Eurovision 1994 this electrifying and innovative dance piece was developed into a full length stage show by Producer Moya Doherty, Composer Bill Whelan and Director John McColgar Riverdance has travelled the globe for more than two decades captivating a worldwide live audience of over 25 million fans. "One of the most entertaining shows you will ever see." Evening Herald "Delightful! Energetic! Sexy!" Toronto St

12 June – 9 September, Tickets: €16 - €71, VIP Experience Available Shows: Tuesday – Saturday 19:30 | Sat. Matinee 15:30 | Sunday 17:00.

Murray's Bar & Grill, 33-34 Upper O'Connell Street, D1

The Murray's musicians then play all your traditional Irish favourites late into the night. Our 1916 Easter Rising show commemorates this momentous event in Irish history. Traditional Seanachaí storytellers describe the events of Easter Week, while performers in contemporary costume re-enact key moments in the conflict. Backed by traditional Irish music, this unique experience is not to be missed. Come visit us at Murray's! Showtimes: Sun - Thur 9pm - 11:30pm,